Sight Reading Selection _____

Judges will grade principal items by inserting A, B, C, D, or E in the square opposite the item. Plus or minus (+ or -) may be used here. Judges are urged to explain these ratings and give suggestions for the corrections of the faults indicated. Comments should deal with fundamental principles rather than minor details. The final rating (I, II, III, IV, or V) should correlate with letter ratings but not contain a plus or minus sign.
